What are the stacks?
The stacks refer to the bookshelves housing the majority of our book collections. In the main stacks, the books are organized by the Library of Congress classification system.

If you need help finding a book, come to the front desk and we'll be happy to assist you.

An iPad is available to search the library website and the catalog.